Core Workshop Program - These workshops are groups of 3-5 clients with 2-4 staff working four hours at at time each week on projects of the clients' choice. Projects are often miniature model and/or carpentry projects. We also do video and theater projects. Attendance in 2012 increased to over 40 students participating in the program. This program includes one-on-one counseling and therapy as needed. The Core workshop program now includes a Model Employment component where successful participants in the workshop program do work around the premises cleaning and building needed projects while earning minimum wage. We have also added a software development component giving students opportunities to learn about the software industry while participating in the development of an iphone app that teaches executive function skills.
