Autistry Studios is a Bay Area nonprofit that strives to build independence in teens and adults with autism and other social and communication challenges. On Sunday, October 19, 2014, we are throwing our 3rd Annual Autistry Faire fundraiser. Eco-Tech: Using Our Powers for Good will feature games of skill and chance, carnival booths, face painting, and a racetrack made out of recycled cardboard for remote-controlled cars! Would you like to have your name or logo on the crash wall of the racetrack? On a booth? Check out the options:
